

Alexander Vidal

Website

Alexander Vidal studied anthropology and worked as a wildlife educator at the Los Angeles Zoo before attending ArtCenter. Travel, exploration, and a love of animals and wild spaces inspire his picture books, including Cougar Crossing which was awarded the Cook Prize Gold Medal. He illustrates for organizations he supports, such as Yosemite Conservancy, Audubon, Smithsonian, Monterey Bay Aquarium, and California Academy of Sciences.

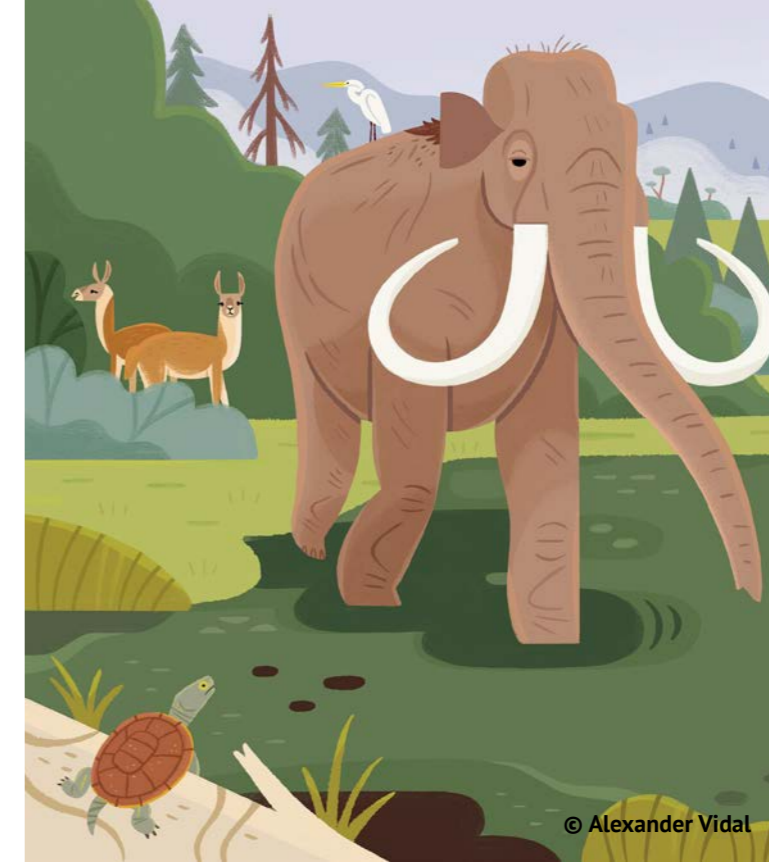

Represented by Stefanie Sanchez Von Borstel

Cook Prize Gold Medal for Nonfiction

© Alexander Vidal

© Alexander Vidal

© Alexander Vidal

© Alexander Vidal

© Alexander Vidal