Website

Adriana M. Garcia creates visual art, paints murals, and illustrates picture books from her hometown of San Antonio, Texas. She has been awarded the American Indian Youth Literature Award and Pura Belpré Medal for Illustration for Where Wonder Grows, and Pura Belpré Illustration Honors for All Around Us and Remembering, all by Xelena González. Adriana creates community murals honoring history, social justice, immigration, environmental and women's rights. She believes in the social importance of art to document, heal, protest, and learn.
